PACIFIC COAST OUTLOOK DARK

Development of Naval Bases Uncertain

Changes in Congress Cause for Pessimism

Loss of Poindexter and MacArthur Felt

BY ROBERT R. ARMSTRONG
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Survey of the changes in the next Congress show that the Pacific Coast is going to suffer gravely in representation on the Naval Affairs Committee of both Senate and House. Defeat of Senator Poindexter who has been actively in charge of the naval appropriation measure in the Senate and Congressman MacArthur of Oregon, one of the highest ranking members of the House Committee on Naval Affairs, leaves the Coast without representation on either committee save for the efforts of Congressman Swing of California, whose work is solely to keep San Diego on the naval map by attempting to complete the work started in that city for the Navy by former Congressman Kettner.

Prospects that the coast will be largely ignored in the next Congress on these committees are evident and even if the Coast States get additional representation the new members will be at the foot of the large committees and their influence or prestige will be for many years of less weight than the problems of the Pacific demand.

EFFORTS NULLIFIED

Even now the efforts to maintain and develop proper naval bases on the West Coast are being nullified by the attitude of the budget officers, and if the coast gets any new money for naval basing it will be only after a tremendous fight.

Determined efforts made in the House Committee on naval affairs gained a little for the finishing of the naval training station at San Diego, but this increase has a hard row to hoe before it gets into final law. When the budget was submitted there was no provision for any more than maintenance fund for the $2,000,000 naval training plant at San Diego.

The House Committee has inserted a new item of $125,000 to complete the work on the naval training base at San Diego and make it in part available for what is intended for. Originally it was to have cost $4,000,000 and provide for the training of several thousand men. That was out in two but the number who may be trained will even with this new money be less than 1,000 men.

TRANSFER PROBABLY

However, with this added expense the naval training work can be properly transferred from Yerba Buena Island in San Francisco Bay and some return secured for the tremendous past expenditures at San Diego on this base. Whether the additional appropriation in the bill can be presented in the House or Senate remains to be seen. After the committee are reorganized the Pacific Coast will not even be as strong as it is now, and the Los Angeles suburb which has been eliminated altogether.

The budget provided for three-quarters of a million for drying and otherwise preserving the channels and waterways in Mare Island Navy Yard. This the House Committee doubled before they reported the bill today, but this increase, if it is available, will be only for maintenance and provides no real development for naval basing on the Pacific.

RED CROSS GENERAL BOARD HAS MEETING

WORK OF ORGANIZATION IS PRAISED BY PRESIDENT AT FIRST SESSION

(BY A. P. HUGHES)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—High praise for the American Red Cross was voiced by President Harding today in opening the annual meeting of the general board of the organization.

"Not only is the government giving of its influence and its power in the protection of human rights and human interests everywhere in the world," he said, "but this fine exponent of American influence and power and capacity to serve is giving the best that is in it for the relief of human beings in distress wherever in the world there is call."

"You have done a fine work and you will be called upon to do more."

Other speakers at the meeting were Vice President Coolidge, Robert W. DeForest of New York, vice-president of the society, who presided; John Barton Payne, national chairman; and Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary since its incorporation by Congress. Officers were unanimously re-elected and at a meeting of the central committee a resolution was adopted approving the organization's present program. The committee's declaration called for priority in carrying out the program for the needs of disabled ex-service men and preparedness for disaster relief.

Mrs. Henry P. Davidson of Loomis Valley, N. Y., widow of the chairman of the Red Cross war council, was elected to succeed him as a member of the board at the annual meeting of the incorporators, and the chapter delegates selected her to succeed him on the central committee, to which Herbert Hoover was also elected, succeeding Charles D. North of New York, who declined re-election. The vacancy on the board of incorporators, caused by the death of Thomas Nelson Page, was filled by Mrs. Charles Scott, Jr., of Philadelphia, widow of a vice-chairman of the society.

BELL WILL CASE IS NEARING CLOSE

(BY A. P. HUGHES)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—Five contestants of the will of Mrs. Teresa Bell—an instrument which renounced them as her children and gave them but $5 apiece—will close their case tomorrow in a Superior Court hearing where they hope to be declared the offspring of the eccentric millionaire.

Half a dozen attorneys representing the executors (and others who are endeavoring to have the will upheld, announced they would be prepared to start presentation of their side tomorrow.

The five repudiated as children of Mrs. Bell contend she was of unsound mind. Mrs. Hattie Quigley, who worked for Mrs. Bell during the latter years of the wealthy widow's life, testified her employer often declared she heard "kind voices from the clouds." Mrs. James F. Hinkel told the jury Mrs. Bell once handed her two rocks and said she could be extracted from them.

Testimony of Carl Eisenachmidt, handwriting expert, tended to show that Mrs. Bell in drawing the will in 1910 disclaimed the maternity of only four children and several years later inserted the name of the fifth. This testimony was deemed significant in view of an assertion on the stand earlier by Michael P. Hennsey that Mrs. Bell about seven years ago told him she had "only one boy, my son Fred."

STACE BERESDKE (Penn.) Dec. 19, 1936
The three thousand Penn State students turned out for a huge meeting tonight to give the Penn State football squad a rousing send-off for its trip to the Pacific coast to meet the University of California at Pasadena on New Year's Day. Christmas holidays here on Friday and this was the last chance for the team to get used to speed the team on its way. Penn State will leave for coast next Tuesday.
The members were made assistant by Capt. Hugo Beresdke, Assistant Coach, and Capt. Bantz, a member of players. Beresdke assured the students that either in victory or defeat the team could upon their return to play a hard football game at the Tournament of the Badmen. He paid tribute to the strength of the coaches and predicted one of the best seasons of the season when the two meet on New Year's. When Penn State meets the Bears.

and that his team was ready for games and would be at top form for Trojans the enthusiasm of students knew no bounds.

The meeting tonight was also in nature of a farewell to Assistant Coach Bill Martin, who leaves the state in January to become coach at Harvard. A huge living cup was the gift of students to the retiring coach in appreciation of the faithful service that he has given to Penn State.

The coaches sent the first and last runs through another hard practice late this afternoon with the full team continuing to display the power that was so conspicuous yesterday. Patton is coming along nicely at halfback and is being used in a strong running game for the brilliant Wilson. The work at quarterback improved with every practice.

Dutra and Hay to Meet Hagen-Kirkwood Combination at Del Monte Course

CALIFORNIANS BATTLE STARS

Big Match is Scheduled for December 24

Club Fighters Out to Hang Up New Record

Holiday Tournaments Will Follow Exhibition

(SPECIAL DISPATCH)

DEL MONTE, Dec. 13.—Much speculation is taking place as to the chances of Morris Dutra and Peter Hay, the local professionals, against Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood, when they meet in a thirty-six-hole match on the Pebble Beach and Del Monte Courses on Sunday, December 24. A number of people are of the opinion that the local professionals will stand a good chance of beating the famous visitors, owing to their knowledge of the courses. It will be recalled that last season Dutra, partnered by John Black, held Jim Barnes and Jack Hutchinson even in a sensational match here. Dutra has improved wonderfully since that time, and Peter Hay in his matches is always a useful partner. There is a great possibility that a course record will be established in the match. Both Pebble Beach and Del Monte courses are now in top condition. The par for the course is 72. The par at Del Monte is 71.

Following the exhibition there will be on Christmas Day a match play versus competition, for the golfers who will be down to see Hagen and Kirkwood, and to enjoy the Christmas celebration at Del Monte.

For New Year's there will be the annual tournament, which calls for the qualifying round on Saturday, December 18, with the match play on the following two days. There will be events for men and women. It is practically assured that there will be over 100 men players in this year.

After the first of the year Del Monte is to have one of the biggest golf tournaments ever mapped out here. There will be week-end competition as a regular feature, and there will be tournaments over all the holiday events with to feature Pebble Beach gold golf team up for play over George Washington's birthday.

CITY LEAGUE HAS DEMON DISCS MEN

Two teams of disc golfers have sprung up in City League ranks since last spring. Lincoln High is one of the lucky schools while Poly is the other fortunate institution. Wagner, the Rialto-Union black hawker, is supposed to toss the platter 130 feet, while Alon, the Mechanic weight man, tossed the disc 111 feet 1 inch in practice recently.

FORMER COASTERS TO BE MANAGERS

"Stubby" Edington, former Vernon outfielder, Bill Rodgers, former Sacramento manager, and Bert Niehoff, former Angel, will all be managing minor-league clubs in 1933, according to news received here yesterday.

Edington will be at the helm of the Beaumont club in the Texas League, where he and others were traded by the Vernon Tigers for Jackie May. "Raw Meat" Rodgers will act as skipper of the Albany team in the Eastern circuit. Bert Niehoff has been retained as manager of the Mobile club in the Southern League. Last year Niehoff won a pennant for the Mobile Bears.

SIKI CITED TO APPEAR ON FRIDAY

French Boxing Federation to Have Another Talk With Senegalese Pugilist

(BY GABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PARIS, Dec. 13.—"Battling" Siki, the Senegalese pugilist, who has refused to appear before the French Boxing Federation in the investigation of the charges of a frame-up in his fight with Georges Carpentier, was again summoned by the federation in a letter sent him tonight to come before the federation Friday evening.

The federation has declared it will not permit another fight between Siki and Carpentier unless the matter appeared before the investigating committee. An afternoon newspaper, in what purports to be a new "inside story of the frame-up" says the Siki-Carpentier fight was only one of a series of such battles. It asserts that the situation surrounding the bout between Siki and Carpentier was presented to the boxing authorities soon after the fight but that the federation took the advice of one of its counselors to "brush up the matter in order to save the honor of the game."

Frank Chance has planned on returning here after the American League meeting and not going to Boston until February. He may be compelled to change these plans in response to the insistence of Boston fans. Gus Rooney of the Hub writes:

"If Chance is to succeed where Hugh Duffy failed he must work hard and get on the job early. It will take some time for the fans to warm to him after having a pleasant season with Duffy, who still is the idol of the Boston fans on account of being one of the great players who claim Boston as home."

"Chance should come to Boston at once. The fans will want to see him with both feet on the ground here, and working from the Fenway Park office. They won't stand for a man directing baseball affairs from the coast. It can't be done successfully and though Chance himself may remain in New York he should insist that his manager be on the job in Boston."

"We know Chance best as a former National League player, and it may take him time to become accustomed to the ways and means of the American League, although he was manager of the Yankees at one time."

"The only hope for Chance is to have a hustling young ball club. The fans will wait until it is developed. They won't demand a great deal of it the first year or two, but if it is indicated that an effort really is being made to build up patience will be shown by the populace."

Chance is stepping into a tough job. In Boston they date things from the club lead by Bill Carrigan, a truly good team, and one which it will take any manager years to duplicate. One's assessment only increases that Frank should give up a life of ease everything that the casual mind or the selfish heart could desire, to undertake the rehabilitation of a tail-end team in a town of lattered baseball hopes!

Possibly there is something bigger back of it. If Chance succeeds in accomplishing what would appear to be the almost impossible in Boston it is to be a stepping stone to the management of the New York Americans? Past deals would seem to indicate a very close relationship between the Red Sox and Yankees, although both clubs deny this. Anyway, such conjecture lends interest to the P. L.'s latest venture.

Hugh Duffy, whose contract has another year to run, will remain with the club probably in the capacity of chief scout.

Apparently there is to be action in the heavyweight division. While it seems there has been nothing put down in writing between Dempsey and Willard, the public assurance of Jack Kearns that Dempsey will fight Willard in June is accepted by Ray Archer and Gene Doyce, who are handling the affairs of the challenger, as more than a move to ease through an embarrassing week. They are taking Kearns at his word, and believe that the latter means business.

Some claimed to detect a "hook" in the original statement that Dempsey would give Willard a match on May 10, as there frequently is a good deal of opposition to boxing matches on Memorial Day, and it was regarded as doubtful whether a fight could be staged on that date. But the June date will avoid this uncertainty, and should be wholly satisfactory to Willard. It leaves him ample time to get in shape, and should he lose there will be no possible alibi on that score.

Kearns since arriving in Los Angeles appears to have experienced a radical change of attitude. His tendency, judging from papers elsewhere, had been to belittle Willard, the natural result of which would be to make it difficult to secure a promoter. In fact, a San Francisco paper in an issue when Kearns was in that city contained the headline, "Kearns Laughs at Willard." He didn't laugh at Willard, however. Rather, he proclaimed him a great and good man. Perhaps Kearns was misquoted elsewhere, and perhaps not, but sensed on reaching Los Angeles that public opinion made the match inevitable, and it would be good business to give Willard a cheer. Kearns is shrewd, and seldom makes a faux pas. Meantime, the public will await the next move with watchful expectation, and judge all concerned accordingly.

As far as it has gone, it is a happy conclusion to a trying situation. Nobody regretted more than the writer that the climax should arrive when the champion was appearing at a local playhouse, which may have made it a bit embarrassing to the latter.

But it was impossible with any degree of fairness to ignore the challenges of Willard. Ring usage always has provided for a return match for a defeated champion should he seek it. Had the situation been reversed, a few shrewds would have been teased into the Willard camp to turn the tables, but he appears to be the best of the bunch, and it was impossible not to be impressed by his evident sincerity, or ignore his claims, even though not unequivocally shining his enthusiasm.

Meantime, there would appear no reason for Kearns and Dempsey putting the burden of promotion on Archer and Willard. They say they want action, and men wanting anything generally go looking for it. The best way to find it in this case is to encourage bids, rather than scare off possible promoters by the doleful beating of tom-toms.

PROPER BREATHING TOPIC

Barclay L. Sevens Tells Value of Deep Inhaling During Regular Exercise

Article XI
BY BARCLAY L. SEVENS

The air we breathe is composed chiefly of two gases, oxygen and nitrogen, elements which also enter largely into our food. Oxygen is the great life supporter.

Nitrogen is necessary to man, but not in the same way as oxygen. In the air it acts to dilute or weaken the oxygen. Life would soon burn out if we breathed pure oxygen.

The blood must have oxygen and it gets most of what it needs from the air we breathe.

The oxygen attaches itself in some way to the red corpuscles of the blood. It can actually be pumped out of arterial blood.

NOSTRIL BREATHING
Inside the nose are thin plates of bones called upon themselves and covered with mucus membrane containing many blood vessels. These are really "warming plates" like the plate of a stove. The air passing over them is warmed before going to the lungs. Air should not be breathed in through the mouth.

Breathing should be unconscious, but deep breathing exercises should be taken every day. "A hundred deep breaths a day" is one recipe for avoiding tuberculosis. Cases have been recorded where men who have suffered a nervous breakdown after many years of health had failed, have retired from business for several months, spent the time in the mountains in which simple deep breathing exercises practiced systematically every day effected a permanent cure.

Men who spend most of their time indoors are particularly susceptible for the evils of indoor living by stepping out of doors, or raising a window and take a dozen deep breaths several times a day.

MAKE IT A HABIT
Follow this up by making it a "habit" to take deep breathing exercises the first thing after arising in the morning, just before breathing exercises should be deep, slow, rhythmic and through the nose not through the mouth. Muscular exercises stimulate deep breathing and in general the two should go together. But deep breathing by itself is also beneficial. Very slow, forced rapid breathing is comparatively valueless and may be positively harmful. Oxygen is absorbed only according to the demand for it in the body and not according to the supply.

Deep breathing should be at all times precede regular exercise. Never in all history has the efficiency of the human body been so highly valued as it is today; and yet there is no phase of life, no need of the body, no subject of vital importance to the man or woman of this age, so unknown and erroneously neglected as the one which concerns our "system of breathing."

This is an age when the high cost of living is one of the national topics of the day. Fresh air costs the exercise of breathing. Take advantage of its cheapness and learn to realize its value.

BUSHERS MEET TONIGHT

Association Members in Confab at Spalding; Big Game Opens Sawtelle Park

BY JOE BUSH

The Greater Southern California Baseball Association will hold its regular weekly meeting at Spalding's sporting goods store tonight. According to President Weinreich tonight's confab should be a terrific affair and furnish a few thrills.

Several important things will be brought up, such as playing off of the games postponed by the recent rains. During the past two weeks, but four Greater Southern California Baseball Association games have been staged and it is up to the association officials to make arrangements for the playoffs.

According to the present dope, the Southwestern University and Downey clubs appear to be the favorites to cop the titles in the city and county leagues. Both teams have been playing wonderful ball and seem to have the knack of winning. Downey, however, has not met either Lynwood or Norwalk, two of its strongest contenders, rain postponing their tilt.

Joe Pirro's All-Stars and the Los Angeles White Sox will meet next Saturday and Sunday in their two games that were postponed on account of rain. These games will be the final of their series and are expected to draw big crowds

Home Electrification—Common Sense versus the grab-bag method

COMMON sense urges the wisdom of hiring a qualified electrical contractor who will use standard materials, employ good workmanship, and charge a fair price. He will study the problem of electrifying your home as a whole and present you with a complete solution, satisfactory in every detail, including the choice of appliances.

The grab-bag method is to pick a contractor at random—usually the lowest bidder, with the result that eventually you spend five times that small initial saving in replacing the inferior workmanship and sub-standard materials which made the lower bid possible.

The appliances shown on this page are representative of a complete line of standard electrical merchandise which the Pacific States Electric Company, with a world market from which to choose, has selected, inspected and certified with the "check" seal of quality. They are distributed through responsible dealers and electrical contractors who are qualified in every way to give you the sort of service which you have a right to expect.

Look for the "check" seal as a reliable aid to common sense in choosing a responsible electrical contractor and obtaining standard electrical merchandise.

The electrical appliances shown on this page, together with other standard electrical products, certified by the "check" seal, are described in our new booklet "The Electrical How for Householders." You will enjoy this booklet, with its many practical suggestions for the convenient and economical utilization of electricity in your home. It may be obtained free from any electrical contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

IMMIGRATION LAW OPPOSED

Farm Bureau Speaker Would Make Changes

Wants Producers Rather Than Peddlers

Modification of Law Asked
by Manufacturer

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—An immigration law which is a restriction rather than restriction was advocated today by Harvey J. Boone of St. Paul, Minn., speaking before the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual meeting here today.

The 5 per cent clause of the immigration law was severely criticized by Mr. Boone, formerly a delegate to the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, as well as other speakers on the afternoon program.

"What this country needs is more producers and fewer peddlers," Mr. Boone declared. "The way to attain this result is first to repeal this 5 per cent immigration law and then enact an immigration law similar to the Canadian Law, with its new regulations and its occupational tests."

"Financial, physical and moral requirements are essential and should be added to any immigration regulations. This selection should take place as near the point of origin as possible, and the administrative authority should be centralized in one Federal agency."

The present law is permitting the country to be flooded with a class of non-producers who are taking up the quota of countries that would furnish laborers who would be glad to come to this country if it were possible to do so.

"We welcome the spirit of immigration but positively object to the scourge of immigration," Modification of the present law was urged by James A. Emery of the National Association of Manufacturers, Washington, who declared immigration should be charged against immigration in determining national quotas and that admissible and desirable labor should be admitted in groups of quotas where the necessity of such labor is clearly demonstrated and is not obtainable in this country.

Location for Boathouse in Park Disputed

A delegation from the Glendale Boulevard District Association appeared before the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday in support of the project to erect a new boathouse in Echo Park. While the park department's recommendation is for a new structure at the south end of the lake, many of those present want it at the north end, where the present boathouse is located.

The Committee told the delegation that funds for the house would be a part of next year's budget, but that residents in the neighborhood must agree and advise the city of the best location for the interests of the district.

The committee, by a vote of 1 to 1, recommended a denial of the request of Van M. Griffith, motorboat commissioner, for funds to buy two twenty-seat buses to operate in Griffith Park, in addition to the two machines now serving the public there.

The committee arranged to turn over $1500 to the playground department for improvements in the Arroyo Seco clubhouse. An allowance of $10,000 had been asked.

MONTECITO TO HAVE OWN WATER SUPPLY

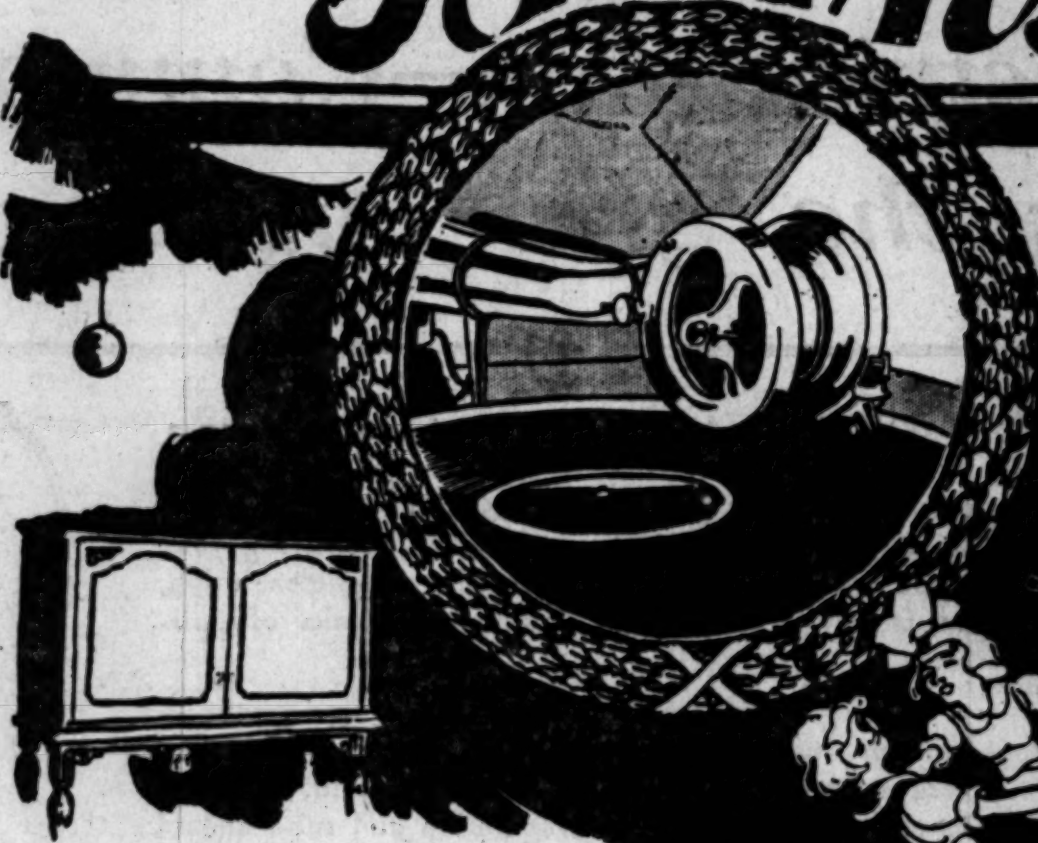

TUNNEL WILL BE DRIVEN FAR
UP TORO CANYON

(SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 13.—) Montecito property owners who have formed a water district are preparing to drive a tunnel far up Toro Canyon, in the eastern end of the valley to develop a domestic water supply. At first the district will be connected with the seepage from the tunnel. It is said, but eventually will penetrate the range and tap the flow in Santa Ynez River on the north side of the range.

Resolutions and other preliminary matters called a bond election at which to vote bonds for the project have been drawn and are now in the hands of Judge Angelelli of San Francisco, counsel for the district. The residents will also vote on a proposition to buy water from the city of Santa Barbara until such time as the tunnel project can be completed.

An offer has been placed by Montecito with the city contemplating this purchase and the City Council has employed Judge Walter E. Bordwell of Los Angeles and his law firm to give an opinion on the legality of a contract which the city might enter into with Montecito to supply water for a limited time only.

ASTORIA BEGINS REBUILDING

City is Reopened and Workmen Start Clearing Away
Debris for New Structures

ASTORIA, Dec. 13.—There was music in the air in Astoria today. It was neither classic nor jazz. It was sweeter music, that created by hammers and saws and crowbars. The burned area, for four days a place forbidden, was reopened to workmen, property owners and merchants. The work of reconstruction was started. Complete peace and harmony exist in all districts of the city.

Astoria settled down to labor in earnest. City officials laid plans for the reopening of Commercial street, the principal artery of traffic from east to west. The Y.M.C.A. conducted a free employment bureau and brought the jobless into contact with the men who wanted to rebuild.

In that district along Bond and Astor streets, once shunned by respectable people, carpenters were tearing out the fronts of the old dens of infamy and preparing the interiors of the ramshackle structures for occupancy by business houses. Along the edges of the burned area mushroom structures began to appear—knock-down houses and garages, which will be the temporary homes of stores until such time as the newer and greater Astoria is built.

Commercial salesmen began signing the town. Representatives of jobbers, wholesalers and manufacturers of building supplies and dealers who handle building material were descending on Astoria in force. Their visit was not in vain. Astoria wanted supplies and ordered large quantities. For three days after the fire the citizens of this city did little other than gather in groups on the edge of the burned district and gaze across

Los Angeles Staff to be

Collector

Collector Goodcell returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he has been for the past month in conference with treasury officials regarding increases in office personnel and new quarters for the Los Angeles district.

Although collectors from many districts were at the national capitol on official missions, their figures do not compare with those of the Los Angeles district in size and growth, and Collector Goodcell went out all down the line in the face of the fact that the department decided the other districts would have to get along with their present staffs.

Collector Goodcell was present at a tryout of a new filing system for income tax accounts that was originated by Chief Deputy Riley of the local office. By order of Commissioner Blair the new system was installed at Raleigh, N. C., where it worked so well that Collector Goodcell was instructed to install the system here. It will require 540 steel cases and jackets for $20,000 returns.

CHRISTMAS IN SANTA MONICA

"I AM COME THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE LIFE,
AND THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE IT MORE ABUNDANTLY."

Santa Monica fulfills its part in the more abundant life. Light, love and life are normal, natural, spontaneous—flowing freely in unobstructed channels—their negatives are not present.

There is no shivering from cold or sweltering from heat, neither is there fear of the wrath and violence of storms.

This picture of the freedom and joy of human activity at Christmas season is likewise a picture of every day in the year. In winter people flee from the North to Santa Monica—in summer they flee from both North and South to Santa Monica.

Spiritual light, love and exaltation are not so easily pictured, but they have a conscious presence which will be felt across the land and into foreign lands.

The silent strength and grandeur of the mountains, the beauty of the bay and crescent coast, the transcendent glory of the sunsets, the majesty of space and distance point thought to divinity, compel devotion and inspire high endeavor.

Thus Santa Monica has become the home of the great religious and educational Chautauqua of the Pacific. Its plans include the suggestion for a peace temple on one of the foothills looking far out over the Pacific and beckoning the nations bordering the peaceful ocean to gather together in its councils that "peace on earth" may become a realization.

This page bears its own witness of "good will to men" manifested among men. The people of Santa Monica are unselfishly banded together for the greater good and to carry the knowledge of their blessings to all people that others may enjoy the things which they enjoy.

This page is our Christmas Tree. It is laden with gifts which most people have not expected to receive outside of Paradise. Yet they are for you. If you are not able to dwell with us and share them all you can at least visit us sometimes and know what things are here for you when you come.

Sunshine, flowers, comfort, outdoor pleasures, the song of the birds, the joy of living, an ideal home and inspirational exaltation are waiting for you.

MARKET REVIEWS
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The advance in foreign exchange, once more overshadowed all other financial movements today and although in the later hours sterling sold down 3-4 cents from the day's highest rate, that did not occur until after a rise of nearly 6 cents
from Tuesday's closing and 12 cents from last week's final price.
The point of interest was therefore still the advance rather than the reaction. That the advance should have received a definite check, for the first time since it got well under way at the opening of this month, was nevertheless a matter of interest. This may be explained merely by heavy realizing sales of bills bought at lower prices for speculation, or it may have indicated that the mysterious
"special operation" at which the London market has been hinting
was completed.
London has not been obliging enough to give particulars, but Lombard street has really seemed to be as much in the dark as Wall street, the last named authority having in fact given way to some rather wild conjectures such as a huge British government loan recently negotiated here, or a program by the Bonar Law ministry to push sterling back to parity by brute force. There are all kinds of "special operations" even the transfer of capital to London by American millionaires transformed into British noblemen, to avoid double taxation, must sometimes affect the market.
The sale of some foreign loans of eight or nine months ago may have been partly "earnmarked" for payment of London indebtedness by the borrowers. Any such transactions, however, would fall short of explaining the recent extraordinary rise in sterling under the other seemingly unpropitious influences which prevailed, and the market is likely enough to rest on the belief that the steady enhancement of England's international credit is the real secret, after all.
Other European exchanges rose with sterling; Amsterdam went practically to par, Stockholm returned to the season's highest premium, and Paris reacted to its best rate in three weeks. The German mark was again unmoved.
On the whole today's stock markets showed pretty trustworthy signs of strength. The highest prices of the day were not in most cases maintained up to the close,
and there were some set losses.
But the tendency of prices seemed to be at least toward increasing firmness. Bonds showed a distinctly better tone on other recent days,
and changes were irregular.

WALL STREET NEWS
BY MONTICLO
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Sterling's buoyancy this morning, which at one time carried quotations fractionally above $4.65, found its resistance in financial sentiment and in the commodity markets that in stocks. Aside from its influence on the international situation, there is no logical reason why a jump in sterling should have any particular effect on American securities
except, perhaps, in isolated cases.
With commodities it is different.
There is always a big straddle interest in the cotton market about this time of the year, and an advance in sterling is interpreted as calling for relatively lower prices in Liverpool because it takes fewer pounds, shillings and pence to pay for the staple, while the arbitrage selling in the English market, with the compensating purchases in New York, brings about a narrowing of differences. This naturally sent New York quotations higher and was undoubtedly an influence along somewhat the same lines in wheat.
Selling on a moderate scale developed in New York Central when it was announced that the directors had adjourned after declaring the regular dividend. There was some disappointment over this action, as some of the prophets had counted on the stock being placed on a 6 per cent basis. If it were not for the heavy allocation of strike expenses, it is believed that earnings would be around $2 per share, although at present they are about $2 less.
Wall street's reaction to the announcement that the General Asphalt Company had parted with its interest in the Burlington Investment Company, Ltd., for a cash consideration of $1,600,000 and a reduction in its royalty from one-fourth to one-eighth of the oil produced from the Venezuelan petroleum properties, was exhibited in a brisk selling movement which carried prices of more than 3 points. The willingness of the company to reduce its rate of return in consideration of cash was sagely seized upon by the bearish element on the floor. The unfavorable aspects of the transaction,
however, are somewhat mitigated
by the suggestion that production will be considerably increased next year.
One firm summarizes the prospects of various groups for its clients as follows:
Coppers: The margin of profit is increased owing to reduction in fuel costs, greater output per man owing to return of experienced miners and larger capacity of mines.
Rubbers: With costs below 2 1/2 cents for the majority of Cuban producers, profits will be attractive with prices above 3 cents for raw sugar. The carryover from the last crop is one of the smallest in history and a good market for the new crop is assured.
Steels: The 50 per cent drop in coke and an output greater than
for any month since November, 1920, have again re-established a profitable margin over costs for most companies.
Fertilizer and agricultural implement stocks: After two years of poor business due to reduced purchasing power of the farmer, the outlook again appears promising.
A sharp upward movement in tin developed today with spot rates quoted at 37 1/2 cents and futures
one-eighth higher. The advance in sterling was considered an influence. Rubber was another commodity which moved upward,
with prices making a new high level for the year at 25 1/2. Rubber and tire stocks showed no particular buoyancy in response to developments in the crude rubber market, although both United States Rubber and Kelly Spring-

VIOLENT MOVES TAKE PLACE IN STERLING
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Sterling exchange rates today were marked by a period of violent fluctuation in the market, reaching 11.60, an increase of 6 1/2
over Tuesday's closing and the highest price reached since March 1920, and then falling back to 11.57 1/2 in the late afternoon dealing.
Most foreign exchange dealers here frankly admitted their inability to explain the recent rise in the British rate, but in some quarters
there was a belief that manipulation by the British government was responsible. It was reported, but not confirmed, that Great Britain had established a reserve fund here of between $100,000,000 and $200,000,000, available to execute payment of interest on the British war debt and funding of the principal, and that this fund had been used to strengthen the sterling rate as part of a campaign to bring it back to par. Rumors also were in circulation that a British loan was in the process of negotiation to finance purchase of commodities and raw materials,
but they, too, lacked confirmation.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. ROBERT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Stock prices continued their rise to higher ground in today's market, stimulus for the expanded buying being given by a continuance of low money rates, additional stock and extra dividends and another sharp rise in sterling exchange, most of which, however, was canceled later. Shares subject to pool operations and possessing extra dividend possibilities again received the most attention.

One of the surprises of the session was the decision of the directors of the New York Central Railroad not to increase the regular 15 dividend rate. Speculative interests had anticipated an increase to 16 or 17 basis and their disappointment was reflected in a sharp drop in that stock which touched 98 1/2 against Tuesday's high of 99 1/2. Today's closing quotation of 98 1/2 representing a net loss of 1 1/2.

Other rails declined in sympathy, but recovered in response to the fresh buying in that group during the afternoon.

Closing prices were generally higher, with most of the gains limited to fractions. However, Jersey Central advanced 7 points on a small turnover and Northern Pacific rose 2 1/2.

Some excellent gains were made by a number of the speculative favorites, notably by Baldwin, which touched 12 1/2, and closed at 12 1/4, a net gain of 3 points. A squeezing of the short interests in Continental Can also resulted in a 3-point gain in that stock.

General Asphalt broke nearly 4 points on the announcement by President Sewall that an agreement had been made with the Royal Dutch Shell group whereby instead of a one-fourth interest in the future surplus profits of the Venezuelan oil enterprise, the company will realize at once through receipt of a royalty of one-eighth of the crude oil production therefrom commencing Jan. 1, 1923.

Royal Dutch suffered a net loss of nearly 3 points on publication of cable dispatches stating that the interim dividend had been reduced from 15 to 16 per cent on shares traded in abroad. Worth broke more than 4 points in response to the directors' action in approving the appropriation of $26,000,000 from the profit and loss account to be applied to the reduction of "good will," which is carried at $40,000,000.

Call money opened at 4 per cent, eased off to 3 1/2 and then advanced to 4 again before the close. Time money continued firm at 5 per cent for the longer maturities and 4 1/2 per cent for the thirty-day period. Little new commercial paper is coming into the market, although there is a fairly good demand with prime names still commanding 4 1/2 per cent.

Operations in sterling again dominated the foreign exchange market. Demand bills rose to $4.68 1/2, during the morning, but fell back to $4.67 1/2 in the late afternoon. Latest unofficial reports ascribed recent buying as being for the account of the British government. Dutch guilders touched parity, 40.30 cents each, for the first time since 1919, and the Yokohama rate established a new high for the year at 49.01.

French, Belgian and Italian exchange improved slightly. Day's total sales $14,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 91.51 (A.) Net gain 51. High 1919, 101.48; low 71.50. Twenty roads averaged 94.83; net gain 11. High 1919, 91.50; low 71.41. (A.) ex-dividend 04.
